Grade 6, English Course Outline

2021-2022

Dr. Soulef Batnini, Room 22

DESCRIPTION OF COURSE

Grade 6 English Language Arts topics include Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing. This course introduces the main literary genres such as Fiction and Nonfiction, Short Stories, Types of Nonfiction and Themes in the Oral Tradition. Students will learn the main features of each genre and how to recognize them whether they will be reading a short story or an essay. In addition, students will learn how to use and apply their knowledge and what they have learnt in this class to real life contexts. To achieve this goal, students will be engaged in a variety of experiences and interact with their peers in teams through the usage of a range of English materials. In addition, students will apply the blended learning model, that is combining the traditional classroom methods with independent study. Students will have the opportunity to work in teams on projects, face to face learning, online learning involving technology, and the use of the Prentice Hall Literature Language and Literacy textbook .

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

There are two general experiences and outcomes in the English Language Arts Course. Students will read, write, listen, and speak in order to:

- Develop and extend literacy skills through critical thinking and literary analysis
  - Communicate, collaborate and build relationships
  - Reflect on and explain my literacy and thinking skills, using feedback to help students improve and sensitively provide useful feedback for others
  - Engage with and create a wide range of texts in different media, taking advantage of the opportunities offered by ICT
  - Develop an understanding of what is special, vibrant and valuable about one's own and other cultures and their languages
  - Explore the richness and diversity of languages, how it can affect the individual, and the wide range of ways in which the individual and others can be creative
  - Extend and enrich vocabulary through listening, speaking, reading and reading.

- Develop English language skills:
  - Engage with a wide range of texts
  - Enjoy exploring and discussing word patterns and text structures.

Classroom Expectations:

- Engage in activities which encourage enterprising attitudes
- Come to class prepared with materials
- Upon entering the class students should sit and listen for instructions so they know what will be covered in the lesson.
- If students submit late work after being provided with extra time, they will not earn the full grade on their work.
- If a student fails a quiz or test, they will have an opportunity to redo the quiz or test. An average grade of both exams will be given to the student.
- No food or drinks are allowed in the classroom. Water bottles will be stored in the lockers. Students will be permitted to leave class and drink at their lockers
- If a numbered lent textbook is not returned in usable condition by the required date, your family will be asked to pay for a replacement for the book.
